I GIVE THANKS TO

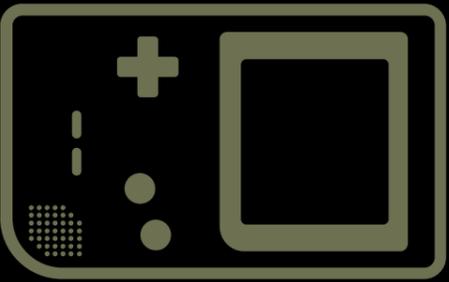

The creator of the games (László Rajcsányi) would like to say a huge THANK YOU to the original coder of the Commodore 16/Plus4 games in this collection, by name: Ian Davison, Patrick Strassen, Chris Robbins, Derek Reynolds and Jonathan Fancey from TYNESOFT, who were responsible for publishing the games between 1984 and 1987. The Plus4World website (Csaba Pankaczy & Luca Carrafiello), which summarizes C16 games, was a huge help to me in the making. Thanks to my parents for surprising me with a Commodore computer when I was a child, and to my wife Györgyi and kids (Ambrus, Barnabás) for not having to spend time away from development. Thanks to Chris Maltby for creating GB Studio.
